

Section 3 Notetaking Study Guide

Question to Think About As you read Section 3 in your textbook and take notes, keep this question in mind: How did the actions of Britain and France affect the United States?

► Use this chart to record key information from the section. Some information has been filled in to get you started.

I. Conflicts in the Northwest Territory
Conflict with Britain	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A decade after the _____, British troops still occupied forts in the Northwest Territory. The British were also supplying Native Americans with _____ and _____ to help limit American _____.
Conflict with Native Americans	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Americans tried to _____ Native Americans to sell their lands in the Northwest Territory. Native Americans sold some land but refused to sell other lands. After an American victory at the _____, the leaders of defeated Native American nations gave up most of their land in the 1795 _____.
II. The French Revolution
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> At first, Americans _____ the revolutionaries. Reasons the French Revolution became controversial <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Violence peaked in a period called the _____. _____ denounced the violence, but Republicans said some violence should be expected. Both Britain and _____, which were at war, began stopping American ships and _____ their cargoes. The British made matters worse by the _____ of the ships' sailors. Terms of Jay's Treaty What the Americans agreed to: _____ What the British agreed to: _____ What the British did not agree to: _____
III. Washington Retires
Farewell Address Advice	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> warned about political divisions at home
Washington's Accomplishments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> established federal government

Refer to this page to answer the Chapter 8 Focus Question on page 135.